Jazz Band

The annual Jazz band concert is held at the beginning of every semester. It features a variety of music picked by the conductor, who happened to be

Dr. Lisa Johnson this year. The event is always a lot of fun, and features the talented Clarion University Jazz Band.

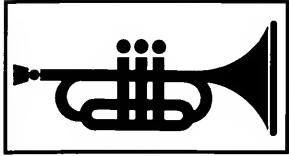

Lesley Croston

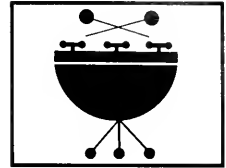

Lesley Croston

Band Concert

This event occurred during the halftime show of the Clarion vs. California State football game. Halftime started with a performance by Apollo-Ridge, a Pittsburgh area high school band. Clarion University and California State bands were joined by four other high school bands to finish off with their patriotic show. To all of those who participated, "job well done!"

"Closer Than Ever"

"Closer Than Ever" opened at the Mardwick-Boyd Little Theatre on Tuesday, Oct. 4th. A very real look at life, "Closer Than Ever" explains what it's like to go through a break-up, to get married, what it's like to be a parent, and how it feels to grow old. Mixing song with real life, this musical was the first of the University Theatre productions during the fall semester.

Brady Mania

Blown away by bandanas and bellbottoms!

On September 20, 1994, Barry Williams, A.K.A. Greg Brady, grooved into Clarion University. The casanova of Clinton Street entertained a crowded Marwick-Boyd auditorium that night. He spoke of experiences on the "Brady Bunch," his thoughts and feelings of the time, relationships with co-stars, and his feelings on "Brady Mania." He capped it all off with a dance-a-long with several audience members. It was a nostalgic and memorable night for all in attendance.

"Hotel
Baltimore"

"Hotel Baltimore"

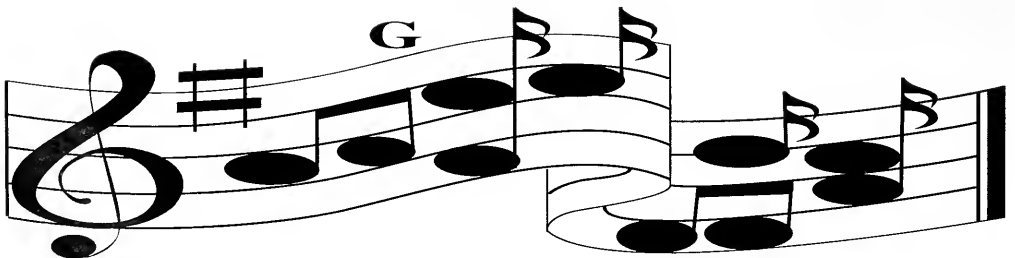

Clarion University got to sample the flavor of Baltimore when the Little Theatre presented the "Hotel Baltimore" Nov. 15-19th. The cast included Michael Martin, Jennifer Vaughn, Ralph Leary, Brian Kapustik, Brian Musser, Leslie Danko, and Jennifer Moss. The slice of life saga focused on the trials and tribulations of residents in the lobby of a condemned hotel.

MADRIGAL DINNER

Lesley Croston

For the past sixteen years, the Madrigal Dinner has become a popular tradition in Clarion. It represents a unique way of welcoming the Christmas season, with all its pagentry and festive spirit.

A Madrigal Dinner is a reproduction of an Old English Christmas feast, complete with singers in period costume, the event of the Boar's head (prime rib dinner), the arrival of the Wassail Bowl, and the appearance of the traditional plum pudding. During the dinner, guests were entertained by the Clarion University Instrumental Consort. After dinner, the Madrigal singers presented a Christmas concert of Renaissance and modern Madrigal music.

Full of laughter, fun and excitement, the 17th Annual Madrigal Dinner made for a delightful evening of food and song.

Lesley Croston

The Dance Concert

The University Dance Concert is a yearly showcase of the talents and creativity of the University's student body. A wide variety of music and dance styles are displayed. This year's program included dance production to selections from West Side Story, to Pearl Jam. Over seventy students participated in this event, and it is one of the most popular events of the year.

Both students and faculty participated in this dance concert. Performances by Dr. Lisa Johnson and under the direction of Marilousie Michel, the dance concert is always a hit. It is required for several dance courses here at the university, but anyone can audition and take part in the performances. Auditions take place in the beginning of the semester so if you're interested in joining the fun just keep your eyes open and watch out for audition signs. It is a lot of hard work, but is a lot of fun and is something you can be proud to be a part of. Remember take part in what's offered here at the university!

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

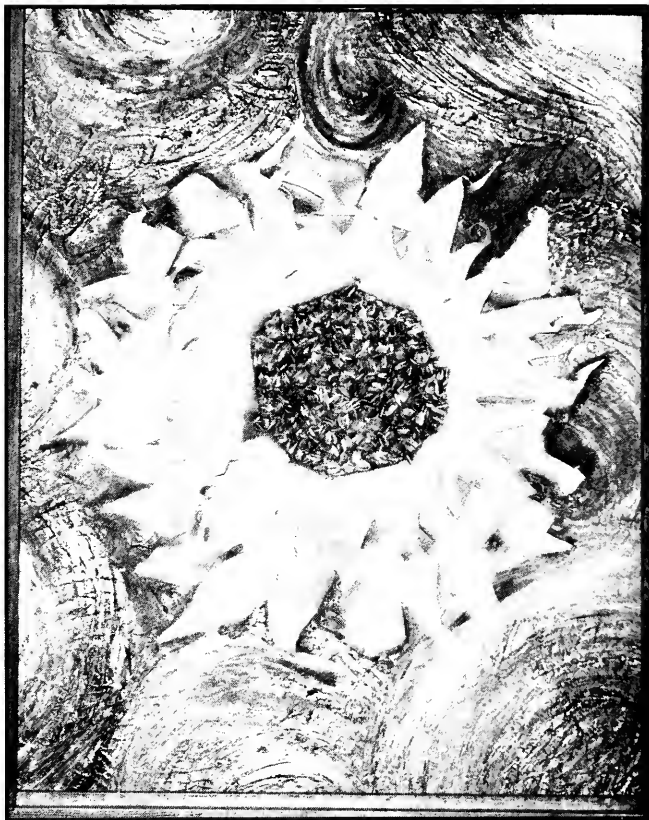

Ebenezer Scrooge, Tiny Tim, Tom Cratchett and all your other favorites of the Charles Dickens' classic "A Christmas Carol" came to life on the stage of the Mardwick-Boyd Auditorium. This play was brought to you by the University Activities Board, due to overwhelming request for more holiday/ seasonal activities for the students. It was preformed by a traveling troupe of performers from Nebraska, who toured over sixty cities during that season. It got an overwhelming response from its audience and was a welcomed experience for all.

Faculty Recital

Every year Clarion's own faculty members put on showcases of their talents. These events are held on one Sunday every month. Paula Amrod's piano recital was one such event. Ms. Amrod wove a tapestry of magic on her piano at her recital. With the audience held spellbound, Amrod performed her piano repertoire including Bach's Italian Concerto (Allegro, Andante, and Presto), Mendelssohn's Variations serieuses, Chopin's Impromptu in F# Major, Samuel Barber's Excursions (Un poco allegro, In slow tempo, allegretto, and Allegro molto), and Alexander Scriabin's Sonata #4 (Andante and Prestissimo volando).

The President's Concert

What do you get when you cross Straus, Glen Miller, and Leonard Bernstein with the Clarion University Symphonic Band? The annual President's Concert, that's what!

The concert honoring Clarion University President, Dr. Diane L. Reinhard, featured some classic and well known tunes. Under the direction of Dr. Stephen Johnson, the C.U. Symphonic Band played "Weiner Philharmoniker Fanfare," by Straus, and "Semper Fidelis," by John Philip Sousa. Music by Glenn Miller including "Little Brown Jug," "Chattanooga Choo-Choo," and "Pennsylvania 6-5000." "La Fiesta Mexicana" by H. Orwen Reed, "Harlem Nocturne" by Earle Haren (featuring Dr. Lisa Johnson on alto sax), Bernstein's prologue from West Side Story, and many others were enjoyed during the President's Concert.

Senior members of the band and their families were honored during the concert. Some band personnel were featured during the Glenn Miller section.

Good job Guys and Gals you all did Great!

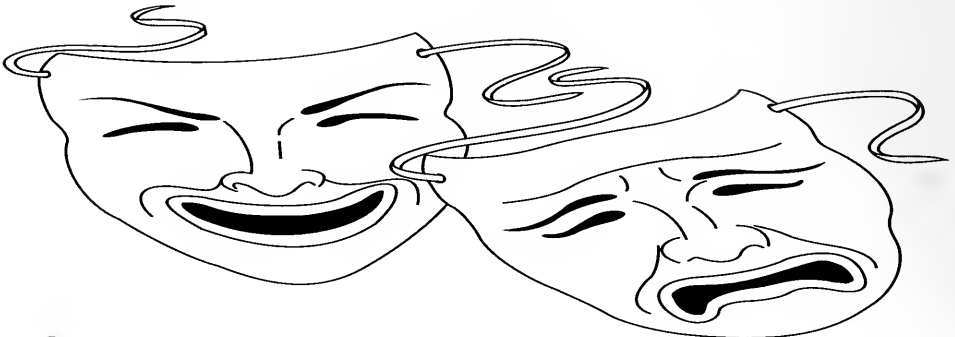

Jim Kren

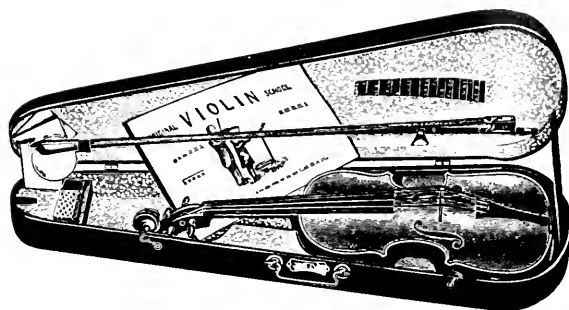

This performance by one of Pittsburgh's most famous radio D.J.'s was one of the comedies brought to Clarion this year by the University Activities board. His comedy ranged from his years as a D.J. to his personal life. Along with his opening act singer and fellow comedian Frank Nicotero, Jim Kren made his audience roll in the aisles. A great time was had by all.

Clarion Call

David Kim

Clarion native, David Kim, returned to the place of his birth to play his violin for Clarion University students, faculty and supporting community.

Kim is a critically acclaimed young artist. He has played with many famous orchestra's including the Pittsburgh Symphony and the Boston Sops. He is the founder and director of the Summer Chamber Music Festival at the University of Rhode Island and was the only American to receive a top award in the 1986 International Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow. During his performance at Hart Chapel, Kim, along with accompanist sonatas and other pieces. Among them were "Beethoven's Sonata #8 in G minor" and "The Swan." Gail also performance a solo piece by Chopin.

Cool Breezes & beautiful music made for an enchanting evening.

The 1995 Spring Musical, "Assassins" opened to a large crowd Feb. 22nd. Using drama, humor, and music, the play portrays the stories of various assassins and their assassination attempts throughout history. John Wilkes Booth and Lee Harvey Oswald, were joined by a cast of motley, rugged looking fellows and femme fatales, in four nights of hilarious fun. The chance encounter of these two assassins brings an added twist to the story. Hats off to the people who made "Assassins" happen.

Mark Tachna

Vocal Chamber Concert

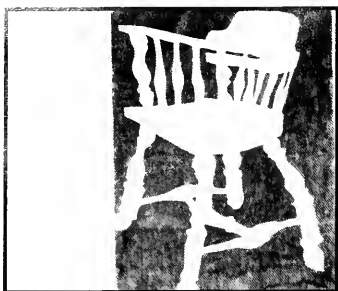

A beautiful combination of voice and music, the 1995 Vocal Chamber Concert weaved a spell of magic about its audience.

Clarion University's Vocal Chamber Ensemble captured the hearts of their on lookers with their songs. Such musical numbers included "Let the Dreadful Engines Rage," "O Sleep Why Dost Thou Leave Me," and "Luna d'estate " were preformed by students and teachers of Clarion University. Also preforming a the nights events were artists from Indiana University, Grove City College and Penn State University. Featured soloists in both piano and song preformed in the evening's events.

HAVE WE GOT

News

FOR YOU

The 1994 season was not easy for the Golden Eagle volleyball team. At the beginning of the season they lost four players that would have been starters. A lot of credit was given to the upper classmen of the team by coach Sue Karris. The upper classmen she gave credit to were Jennifer Betters, Gerri Condo, and Meghan Kelly. After a slow start, the Golden Eagles won seven of their last twelve matches. Other Golden Eagles instrumental in turning the season around for Clarion are Nicole Flambard, Beth Tress, Susan Maslyk, and Erin Weger.

The Greeks work hard for weeks to ready their respective floats for the Autumn Leaf Festival Parade. They work late into the night week after week to make the perfect float.

Early in the morning on Saturday there is a peaceful calm at the Greek houses hours before the parade.

All the hard work they put into the floats culminates in a beautiful spectacle of colors and pageantry. Float after float glide down the main street of Clarion in front of thousand of anxious spectators.

After the parade is over (even before) the Greeks go back to their once calm houses and party.

GHOST STORIES

A night of thrills and chills is what Clarion University Students got to enjoy as Troupe America presented Ghost Stories. Directed by Curt Wollan, Ghost Stories manipulates a company of five actors who move eerily about a haunting stage through drifting fog, probing rays of light, and across creaking weathered floor boards.

The powerful spooky story telling is provided by Stephen King and adapted by Robert Pridham into six bone chilling tales.

The first frightful tale was "The Boogeyman," where a distraught father confides his chilling story to a doctor and we are asked to sort fantasy from reality. In "Strawberry Spring," a college student describes what happened during a chilling killing spree on his campus, only he knows more about the killer than he should. King's macabre makes a villain of a machine in "Uncle Otto's Truck." The truck was used to dispense of a murder victim and years later Uncle Otto is convinced that the truck is moving to kill him.

In these and other stories, "Gray Matter," "The Marsden House," and "The Story of Timmy Baterman," the emphasis is on the story. The effect is heightened by the characters taking turns with narratives, or speaking to but away from each other, keeping the audience in just the right mood of expectation. With the perfect balance between humor and horror, Ghost Stories was truly fitting with the Halloween spirit.

ACTIVITIES DAY...

On September 17, family and friends gathered at Clarion University to see the wonderful sites the campus has to offer. The day began with a greeting from Diane Reinhard and Malin Lure. A picnic was held in Ralston Field followed by a parade and a rainy football game. But despite the weather, Clarion triumphed over Fairmont State, 29-19. Later that evening, ventriloquist Lynn Trefzgar entertained the public with her puppets.

On Sunday, various University organizations, including fraternities and sororities, set up outside Gemmell ready to share their information with all who were interested, while local bands entertained. "The Flintstones," a UAB movie presentation, concluded the activities.

Both days were a success and a benefit to all.

ALF WEEK...

The Autumn Leaf Festival is a big event in Clarion every October. Area residents and students alike gather downtown to celebrate the changing seasons. Each year vendors come to town to sell various foods and homemade crafts.

This week also marks Homecoming festivities for CUP students. These take place at the football game, which follows the parade in town. The king and queen this year were Brian Hoover and Jenifer Janoss. Clarion won the football game against Lock Haven. The halftime show of the game featured "The Land of Oz" this year, and was a big hit with the fans.

BLOODMOBILE...

People went to the multi-purpose room to give blood. First they prick your finger (ouch!) and ask you questions about your physical behaviors. They try to figure out if your blood should be approved or not. Giving blood is a procedure that meets safety precautions in order to insure that the blood is healthy. Then you give blood, and you can decide if you want them to use your blood or not. Some people give blood so that they can check to see if its healthy or not. Finally, blood donors are rewarded with pizza and a beverage... This is a fair exchange for helping someone who needs blood. Please donate your blood... its not as bad as you think.

HIGH SCHOOL ORIENTATION...

Do you remember when you were about ready to graduate from high school and you had to hurry around and decide where you wanted to go to college? Then you chose a few colleges and made appointments to visit each one. You probably took a tour on a day that was known as High School Visitation Day. To your amazement, you felt as if you were one little person on a huge campus where you were sure you would get lost. Although the knowledgeable tour guides, the helpful people in admissions and friendly students answered your questions about Clarion University you still were not sure. Then, at the last minute you decided... Clarion University. There was no turning back and as Robert Frost says, "And that has made all the difference."

CAMPUS SAFETY...

This year students returned to find that the office of public safety had moved. It is now located in Thorn I, the former ROTC building. Dr. Ronald Martinazzi, who is the director of public safety, said, "The location of the public safety office is not significant in terms of safety on campus." But he also stated that, "The layout of this building is more functional than our previous location."

In addition to a new location, public safety has also begun to install emergency phone systems and surveillance cameras at various points on the campus. There will also be a 24 hour switchboard dispatcher available to handle emergencies.

DORM LIFE...

After deciding on a college, you had to choose a residence hall-- Becht, Ballentine, Givan, Campbell, Nair, Wilkinson, or Ralston. You see if its coed , the size, the location, 24 hour visitation, etc. Where do I want to live... maybe I'll just let housing decide. I know that all of the halls have Resident Directors, Resident Assistants and Hall Councils, along with activities and rules. But where should I live? The halls have computer labs, TV lounges, laundry rooms, and recreation areas. I'll just let housing decide because all of the halls are equal in most ways, and wherever they place me I will fit in to the university.

OFF-CAMPUS LIFE & TRANSPORTATION...

Many students at CUP choose to live off campus. The independence of living in an apartment, trailer, fraternity or sorority house can't be found in the dorms. Many students choose to live off campus because its a chance to prove to their parents, as well as to themselves, that they can be responsible and self-sufficient.

Transportation is an important aspect of living off campus. Many people walk, often through rain and snow. Some ride bikes, while others are more creative and rollerblade through the town. Cars are another major form of transportation at CUP.

BOOKBUYING & FINALS...

Oh no! It's that time of the semester again. Its finals week! Now is the time to start going through notes you haven't seen since the first month of classes, and pages of books you never did bother to read. What better time than now to call for a pizza!

The best part of the week to look forward to is selling back your books. And hey, who couldn't use a little petty cash at the end of the semester? Besides, you'll need all the help you can get to finance next semester's books!

INTERNATIONAL

Within Clarion University, students from across the globe are represented. Approximately seventy international students from thirty-five countries are represented here at Clarion. Upon arrival these students are oriented in a unique way. Not only do they receive tours of campus but also of the surrounding areas including a trip to Oil City and Cooks Forest.

Throughout the academic year many programs are available to, and organized by the international students who attend Clarion University. Some of these programs include ethnic dance, poetry readings, and musical presentations. Students from several countries prepare displays and traditional foods from the various nations they represent for all Clarion students to enjoy.

RACS...

Returning Adults and Commuting Students stands in the forefront of service to non-traditional students at Clarion. Officially recognized by the Clarion University Student Senate in 1986. RACS has grown with the influx of returning adults.

The group is open to any registered returning adult or commuting student and has registered 150 dues-paying members. Associate membership is also open to other members of the university community interested in encouraging returning adults to be an integral part of the university. RACS serves as an advocate for special needs and initiates programs to enhance academic and social opportunities for members.

Located in the Gemmell Student Complex, the RACS facility serves as a lounge, lunch room, locker area, and home base for commuting students. Members involve themselves in a variety of service projects both on campus and in the community.

COMPUTER LABS...

Computers have become an important part of everyday college life. Over one-third of the students enrolled at Clarion University are currently linked by computer to the campus' VAX system. This is an indication of the growing student interest in the computer system. "We think this state-of-the-art laboratory is exciting and through these machines students can connect to information sources throughout the world," says Dr. Tom Vilberg, a professor of psychology. "All of the computers are connected to the Internet which allows students to connect to anywhere in the outside world. The lab in the basement of Harvey Hall can provide students with educational opportunities unavailable anywhere else at Clarion."

Clarion University faculty also are learning how to use the new technology. Special open houses, workshops, and one-on-one sessions are helping the college's faculty learn how technology can assist them in their teaching and research.

New computer labs have been and are still being placed throughout Clarion Campus. Dr. Charles Duke, dean of College of Education and Human Services stated that, "We took a look at what our students and faculty would need in the way of technology competencies in the next five years and we developed a plan for providing those competencies." Some long range plans call for wiring all the classrooms in Stevens Hall to the new lab so that faculty can access software, developing portable equipment stations which can be taken into classrooms for special presentations, and adding more coursework at both the undergraduate and graduate level in technology.

FITNESS & RECREATION...

To many students at Clarion University fitness and recreation are more than just simple amusement but have become an important part of college life. Quality hours are spent from aerobics to just shooting pool with the guys. Students across campus have discovered that these activities are great stress relievers and help in coping with classes and the problems faced in every day life.

COUPLES & SEX...

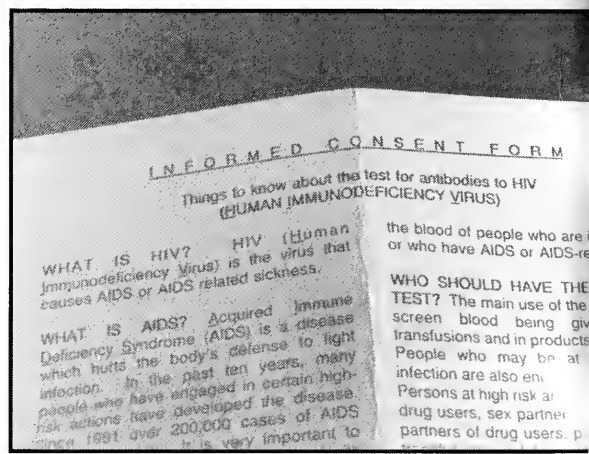

Sex has become a large part of everyday life. Whether it be in advertising, movies, or just walking and holding hands with your partner in your favorite park. The view of sex has greatly changed throughout American history. During the start of our country the sight of ankles were forbidden yet now a person can turn on the television and see just about anything and everything.

Not only has sexual openness become acceptable but also has a person's sexual orientation. Groups such as ALLIES helps a person of homosexual orientation fight for their rights within the campus setting. There are also many other support groups such as STAR for rape crisis victims. But even with these support groups there are still many problems concerning sex within our society. Freedom in this country is very important, but what about the high pregnancy rate and the killer called AIDS? Do we need to stifle our freedom in order to save ourselves from diseases which range from having minor effects on a person to causing death? Does our society need another sexual revolution? Perhaps abstinence is the answer. But this simple solution is not always a realistic answer, although it is ideal. Therefore each person must take responsibility for their own actions, and in turn take responsibility for their life and the life of those they love.

ACTIVITIES...

Activities throughout campus vary from UAB events to sitting around talking with friends. Whether they be a scheduled campus event, playing ball with the guys or a Greek event they are always a nice break from your academic life. Many activities are planned each week within each residence hall. Resident Assistants plan events from a mock dating game to making Christmas tree ornaments. The hall councils also schedule things for their residence to participate in, this may include snacks during finals or a dance.

The University Activities Board plans many activities within the year. A few times a month UAB presents free movies for Clarion University students as well as inviting speakers and a well known band to perform each year. Each day of your college life there are activities on campus for everyone to take part in.

Editor's Closing Comments!

Now that it is time to close this volume of the Sequelle I would like to thank everyone involved in making this years book such a success. I would like to acknowledge all the hard work of the editors and staff over the last year. You all did a great job!

The Student Senate deserves a word of praise for their continued support of all the Clarion University student activities.

Doctor Joanne Washington, I wish to thank you for your unwavering support this year.

Without the help and support of the following people the 1995 book would not have been published Lee Krull, Hal Wassink, Jim Junger, Richard Herman, Jim Rainey, Larry Intihar, and Mike Apice. Thank you all very much

The theme of this year's book is A Day in the Life... I hope that you all never waste a day in your life. Each day is more precious than the day before. Go into tomorrow with a smile and live every moment!

Thanks Everybody!!!

The Silken Tent

*She is as in a field a silken tent
At midday when a sunny summer breeze
Has dried the dew and all its ropes relent,
So that in guys it gently sways at ease,

And its supporting central cedar pole,
That is its pinnacle to heavenward
And signifies the sureness of the soul,
Seems to owe naught to any single cord,
But strictly held by none, is loosely bound
By countless silken ties of love and thought
To everything on earth the compass round,
And only by one's going slightly taut
In the capriciousness of summer air
Is of the slightest bondage made aware.*
